
TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR USE OF API PORTAL

Please read these terms and conditions carefully. Access to and use of the Leschaco API Portal ("API Portal") provided via

Staging / Development

<https://lexst.ui.seeburger.eu>

Production

<https://lexpr.ui.seeburger.eu>

<https://api.leschaco.com>

is subject to the terms and conditions below (the "Terms").

Any expressions such as "we", "us", "our" in any part of these Terms refer to the Leschaco entity mentioned in the imprint, while "User", "you", "your" refer to you as the API Portal's user.

1. General use

Access to and use of this API Portal constitutes your agreement to accept, abide and be bound by all terms, conditions and notices contained or referenced herein, in every respect and without reservation. If you do not agree to one or more of the Terms or find any of the Terms unacceptable in any way, please do not use the API Portal.

By accessing the API Portal, you also agree to comply with the Seeburger Terms of Use available at <https://www.seeburger.com/terms-of-use>, which govern the technical platform infrastructure.

2. Changes to the Terms

We reserve the right to modify, update or otherwise amend in whole or in part, at any time and without prior notice, the Terms as well as any information contained in the API Portal and/or services provided herein. You are therefore advised to check these Terms regularly to be aware of the latest version. Any use of the API Portal after any modification, update or amendment has been implemented shall constitute User's acceptance of the Terms as modified, updated or altered.

3. API Portal access and use

You may only use the API Portal in accordance with these Terms and exclusively for the purposes for which it was created - i.e., accessing Leschaco's API services for integration with your systems and applications for legitimate business purposes related to logistics and supply chain management.

Permitted Uses

- Integration of Leschaco API services into your authorized business applications
- Automated data exchange for shipment tracking, status updates, and related logistics information provided by our APIs
- Development and testing of integrations in accordance with API documentation
- Retrieval of data for which you have proper authorization

Prohibited Uses

Prohibited Uses of this API Portal include, but are not limited to:

- Access to and/or use of the API Portal in a way which would constitute a breach of any applicable law and regulation and/or a violation of Leschaco's or any third party's rights, including without limitation, intellectual property rights;
- Access to and/or use of the API Portal for any unlawful purposes, including but not limited to spreading material containing harmful programs or computer viruses, sending, uploading, transferring and/or in any way disseminating data, files or information with the potential of compromising or causing damage to the normal operation of any software or hardware;
- Attempting to gain unauthorized access to the API Portal, other accounts, computer systems or networks connected to the API Portal through hacking, password mining or any other means;
- Reverse engineering, decompiling, disassembling or otherwise attempting to discover the source code of the API services;
- Circumvention in any way of technical safeguards, authentication mechanisms, rate limits, or access controls of the API Portal;
- Excessive or abusive API calls that could negatively impact the API Portal's performance or availability for other users;
- Reselling, sublicensing or redistributing access to the API Portal or API services to third parties without prior written consent from Leschaco;
- Using the API Portal to transmit any data that infringes upon the rights of others or contains unlawful, harmful, threatening, abusive, harassing, defamatory, vulgar, obscene or otherwise objectionable material;
- Disclosing or revealing API keys, credentials, passwords or other authentication details to unauthorized third parties or using such credentials in an unauthorized manner;
- Accessing data which is not intended for you personally, collecting or storing personal data pertaining to other users beyond what is necessary for legitimate business purposes;
- Any other act which may result in a deviation from the intended purpose.

Should you engage in Prohibited Uses or in any other way breach these Terms, we reserve the right, in our entire discretion and without prior notice, to temporarily suspend or permanently revoke your API access credentials and block your access to the API Portal. In addition to other rights or remedies available at law, we may take any other reasonable action we may deem appropriate to mitigate damages and safeguard the API Portal, and may hold you liable for all damages in connection to or arising out of Prohibited Uses or breach of Terms.

4. Account terms and security obligations

Access to and use of the API Portal is restricted to User's adherence to the following:

- a) You must be a human registering on behalf of a legitimate business entity. Accounts registered by "bots" or other automated methods are not allowed. API calls may be automated once properly authorized.
- b) The API Portal is available exclusively to authorized business partners. You are responsible for maintaining the security of your account, API keys, credentials and authentication tokens, and shall not share these with any unauthorized person.
- c) You must implement appropriate security measures to protect your API credentials, including but not limited to: secure storage of API keys, encryption of credentials in transit and at rest, and regular rotation of authentication tokens as recommended.
- d) You are responsible for all activities that occur under your account and API credentials. You must notify us immediately of any unauthorized use or security breach.
- e) Your feedback, comments and/or suggestions regarding the API Portal will not be treated as confidential and may be used by us within Leschaco's Group activities.
- f) You agree to use the API Portal at your own risk.
- g) You are strongly recommended to take reasonable steps to protect your systems and devices from any form of computer viruses, harmful programs and other threats.
- h) Accounts and API credentials that have been inactive for more than 6 months may be deactivated or deleted.

Should User's scope of work change and further access to the API Portal be questionable, User must contact info@leschaco.com for deactivation or approval of continued access. Scope of work can relate to change of company, department, location, business relationship status, or any other event which may have impact on the business relationship between the User and Leschaco.

5. API Usage Requirements

- a) Rate Limits: You must adhere to all rate limits and usage quotas specified in the API documentation or communicated to you by Leschaco. We reserve the right to throttle or block excessive API requests.
- b) Data Usage: Data retrieved through the API Portal may only be used for the agreed-upon business purposes. You shall not use API data for purposes unrelated to your business relationship with Leschaco.
- c) Data Accuracy: While we strive to provide accurate information, you acknowledge that data provided through the API is subject to the disclaimers in Section 9 of these Terms.
- d) Monitoring: We reserve the right to monitor API usage to ensure compliance with these Terms and to maintain service quality and security.

6. Intellectual Property Rights

All intellectual property rights in the API Portal, API services, documentation, and related materials remain the exclusive property of Leschaco and its licensors. These Terms do not grant you any ownership rights in the API Portal or its underlying technology.

7. Third-Party Platform Provider

The API Portal is provided through Seeburger's technical infrastructure. Your use of the platform is also subject to Seeburger's Terms of Use, available at <https://www.seeburger.com/terms-of-use>. In the event of any conflict between these Terms and Seeburger's terms regarding the technical platform operation, Seeburger's terms shall prevail with respect to platform-specific matters, while these Terms shall govern your business relationship and data access rights with Leschaco.

8. Data Protection

Please refer to the Privacy Policy available on our website, which fully applies to these Terms. You acknowledge that personal data processed through the API Portal will be handled in accordance with applicable data protection laws, including but not limited to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) where applicable.

As a data controller using our API services, you are responsible for ensuring that your processing of any personal data retrieved through the API complies with all applicable data protection laws and regulations.

9. Disclaimer

While offering this service, we use reasonable commercial efforts to maintain the API Portal available and updated; however, it shall be common understanding that the API services and information are provided "as is". No representation is made or warranty - either express or implied - given by us as to the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, reliability, availability and/or correctness of the information provided through the API Portal. We are therefore neither responsible nor accept any liability whatsoever for any inaccuracies, errors or omissions in the data provided through the API and/or relating to or arising out of the use of (or inability to use) the API services and/or for any decision made by the user on the basis of such information.

To avoid any doubt, we do not warrant that this API Portal or any API services provided herein will work timely, securely, without interruptions, error-free and/or free of any form of viruses and other threats, neither that the API services will meet your expectations and/or specific requirements.

We reserve the right to modify, suspend or discontinue the API Portal or any API services, temporarily or permanently, with or without notice, for maintenance, updates, or any other reason.

To the furthest extent permitted by law, we shall not be liable towards User or any third party for any loss or damage - including but not limited to direct, indirect, punitive, consequential, incidental, exemplary or other damages, increased costs and expenses, loss of profit, use, business, goodwill, data or any other intangible losses - howsoever caused and relating to or arising out of access to or use of the API Portal, reliance on, decision made and/or action taken based on any information or content obtained through the API services. If, notwithstanding any of the foregoing, Leschaco is held liable under applicable law, such liability shall be limited to foreseeable damages typically arising.

10. Termination

Either party may terminate your access to the API Portal at any time, with or without cause, upon written notice. Upon termination, you must immediately cease all use of the API Portal and destroy any API credentials in your possession. Sections 6, 8, 9, 10, and 11 of these Terms shall survive any termination.

11. Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms as well as access to and use of the API Portal shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany. Any dispute arising out of or in connection to these Terms, including the use of the API Portal and any information or services provided therethrough, shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Bremen, Germany.
